

Questions for Further Study

A Burden From God

7th June 2026

Neh 1:1-11

1. How comfortable are you with your life right now? Are there any changes on the horizon? When was the last big shift in your life? How did it affect you?
2. (v4) When was the last time a situation provoked a strong response in you and drove you to prayer? What issues are on your mind and heart right now?
3. Nehemiah prayed for 4-5 months before having the opportunity to put his prayers into action. Why do you think God waited so long before giving him his chance to speak to the king?
4. What is the difference between a vision and an idea?
5. Where you are right now is where God wants you to be. What is your mission field? What work has God given you to do there? How available do you consider yourself to be for God?
6. Think of your community, city, and country. What issues fuel your prayers? Spend time praying for those three areas.