

Questions for Further Study

21st April 2024

1 Kings 19:11-13

How has God spoken to people before?

1. Do you feel that you are in a position to listen to God since starting this study? What has been the most helpful thing you have learned/implemented?
2. How many different ways can you think of in the Bible that God spoke to people? (Don't forget Numbers 22:28!) Are you expecting God to speak to you throughout the day? Do you come to church expecting to hear God speak?
3. Do you have a special place where you feel closer to God? How can you create a "thin place" in your home and workplace where you can approach God with expectation?
4. In what ways has God spoken to you before? How did you know it was God speaking? What advice would you give a new Christian about discerning whether a message is from God or not?
5. What strategies do you use to tune into God? (Read about Susanna Wesley's solution here!) Why is it important to meet regularly with God?
6. What new thing will you do as a result of today's study?
