

Week Two

“I tell you the truth; today you will be with me in paradise.”

Luke 23v43.

Introduction

Today's session focusses on being good news to others. How often do you hear good news? How often is good news shared? So often news that we hear is depressing and gloomy or even fake! We as Christians ought to be really proud of the News that God has given us. "Gospel" in the greek means Good news. If we are a follower of Jesus we have news of hope, joy, purpose, relationship, unity, community, and more. This information to ourselves is actually quite selfish, lets embrace the news we have and look at ways of sharing it.

Questions

1. What is a good news story that you have got that you would like to share? Why is it good news. How does your good news story enrich those around you?
2. Have you ever thought that you are Good news? Your actions, your words, your prompts can be a witness to those around you. Why and how?
3. Good news involves telling others. Have you ever been asked a question that led to a conversation about Jesus?
