

Reflect

and

pray

I wonder if, when Rahab was older and looked back over her life, she could see God guiding her before she even met the Israelites and joined God's family?

Why not ask an adult Christian you know to tell you about how they came to be part of God's family? Maybe, like Rahab, they heard stories of God's love and power? Maybe there was someone praying for them or talking with them about Jesus? I wonder what your own story is?

Now think of someone you could pray for to become part of God's family.

Dear God,

Thank you for _____.

Thank you that you love them - you always have done and you always will do. Please bring them into your family.

Amen!
