

Younger children can do this with a grown up.

This can be done without any resources, but you may like to have pens/pencils, a grown up and their phone with photos to hand.

I wonder how you are feeling now that Christmas is over... It is so good that, even when all the presents have been unwrapped and all the special fun things come to an end, we still have the best present ever... Jesus!

At Christmas time we remember Jesus as a baby but that is just the start of His life on Earth as a human. Like us, He was a child and grew up playing, learning, and exploring. He knows what it feels like to be a child.

Let's spend some time with Jesus, remembering and thinking about the Christmas we've just had.

Dear Jesus,

Please help me remember this Christmas with you.

Draw a memory of your Christmas in this box or ask an adult to find or print out a photo of something you did this Christmas to stick here:

You might want to fill in the gaps by talking into your hands, praying in your head, or writing.

Thank you that you were right there with me (even when I was

Thank you for the place in this picture:

Thank you for the people in this picture:

Thank you for the things in this picture:

I was feeling because.....

What do YOU see in this picture Jesus?

.....

Write down what comes to mind.

Thank you that I can talk to you about everything Jesus because you are my friend.

Amen