

Questions for Further Study

12th February 2023

Ephesians 4: 1-16

1. (v2) Looking at this list of characteristics, how would you rate yourself out of 10 for each one? (Humility, gentleness, patience, forbearance, and love). Which area do you think God is working on in your life at the moment?
2. (v3-6) The Greek word used here means “intensely labour”. It connotes a concerted effort, something to be worked at continually. In what ways can we as Christians promote and maintain unity within the church?
3. (v7-12) Do you know what your spiritual gifts are? Do you feel able to use them to serve other Christians and the church? Why is “every member” ministry important? Do you see this happening at TBC?
4. (v13-16) We ought to be maturing in our faith all the time. Do you see a difference in your growth in the past year? How can we measure maturity in ourselves?
5. The Word of God is constantly under attack or re-imagined to conform to human wisdom. How do we ensure that we are not “blown here and there” by false doctrine or a biased interpretation?