

These daily readings leading up to Easter will reflect on conversations Jesus had during his ministry. As you read God’s word, keep a note of what God says to you and what your response is to him.

The daily readings tie in with the Sunday teaching series and with studies in small groups. Alongside this are a series of questions as prompts for reflection in 2s or 3s.

“May God the Creator bless us. May God the Son walk with us. May God the Spirit lead our lives with love.

May the blessing of the One who was, and who is and who is to come be upon us all - redeeming our past, filling our present and lighting up our future.”

A Celtic blessing

Day 11 Sat Mar 11th	Jesus’ desire to do his Father’s will In John 4:34 Jesus told his disciples, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.” Following God’s will day by day & being part of his work in the world strengthens & nourishes us too. Reflect back over the past week and what we’ve seen of Jesus’ values & priorities (living for the glory of God & being compassionate, dedicated, full of grace & truth, & servant-hearted.) As we cooperate with the Spirit’s work in our lives these welcome changes will increasingly characterize us too. Let’s take time each day to renew our commitment to him. Read Psalm 40 in preparation for Sunday worship tomorrow. We can take from these words of worship to express our gratitude for the salvation Jesus accomplished for us through his desire to do the will of God (v8).
---	--