

These daily readings leading up to Easter will reflect on conversations Jesus had during his ministry. As you read God’s word, keep a note of what God says to you and what your response is to him.

The daily readings tie in with the Sunday teaching series and with studies in small groups. Alongside this are a series of questions as prompts for reflection in 2s or 3s.

“May God the Creator bless us. May God the Son walk with us. May God the Spirit lead our lives with love.

May the blessing of the One who was, and who is and who is to come be upon us all - redeeming our past, filling our present and lighting up our future.”

A Celtic blessing

Day 27 Mon Mar 27th	Jesus lights up our future Our response – peaceful trust Read John 14:25-30 Jesus’ promise to his disciples was that the Holy Spirit would remind them of “everything I have said to you” v26. What confidence this gives us that we can base our lives on the words of Jesus that they recorded. And what a gift Jesus has given us – “I am leaving you with a gift – peace of mind and heart” (v27 Living Bible). Think what Jesus meant when he said he was giving us his peace - “my peace”... the peace he’d demonstrated in his approach to life & death, peace given by him, possible because of him, boundless, unending. By God’s grace we are loved regardless, forgiven, restored & befriended by the Almighty God, and our times are in his hands. He holds our futures. In troubled times we rejoice in the certainty of the rock-solid, certain hope that burns in our hearts. “So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.” 2 Corinthians 4:18 “O thou who changest not, abide with me.” May the God of peace be with us all.
